WHAT WOULD YOU DO

WHY are we doing this?

➤ Accreditation

- Cleary Act requirement for higher education institutions:

✓ “The institution’s procedure to test the emergency response and evacuation procedures on at least an annual basis.”

➤ Fiduciary duties of Board/leadership

- Provide safe working environment

➤ Most important

- Save lives

Why have disaster drills?

What have we done to date?

- Tested Rapid Notify System
- Updated Emergency Operations Plan
- Conducted Table Top Exercise

What's coming?

- All campus emergency drill in the upcoming months for PNWU
  - Rapid Notify WILL be evoked
- This will be a drill – but full participation is required.
- Timing (date/time)- no plans to announce ahead of time
- Scenario: Active Shooter

PNWU Firearm Policy

PNWU abides by and enforces Washington State Administrative Codes (WACs) prohibiting both possession of a concealed firearm on State of Washington colleges and universities and possession or use of any firearm, explosive (including fireworks), dangerous chemical or other dangerous weapons or instrumentalities on a University campus, except for authorized University purposes, and unless prior written approval has been obtained from the Director of Security, or any other person designated by the President.

WHAT To Do now...

- Know your escape route (refer to Flipchart for all – here are a couple examples)
  - FIRE:
    - BHH, CSC, and UCC = Northwest Corner of sports field
    - IHL = Northwest Corner of parking lot (by traffic light)
  - ACTIVE SHOOTER:
    - ALL BUILDINGS = Run to safety, meaning get objects and distance between you and the shooter.
- Know numbers to call.

And other items.

What to do when PNWU has a DRILL.....

- DO NOT call 9-1-1
- DO call Security
- Take drill seriously
  - Fully participate (Run-Hide-Fight)

Prevention Best Defense

- “Threat Assessment”
  - Behavior changes
  - Depression
  - Change in personality
  - Talk of suicide
- Awareness
  - Strangers on campus
  - Be observant and speak up

Level 3 sex offender who preys on teen girls captured in Yakima, now suspected of burglarizing churches in the area. The U.S. Marshals Violent Crime Task Force says Yakima police arrested missing level 3 sex offender Aaron Abbott on Saturday. He was featured on Washington's Most Wanted for failing to report into his community corrections officer. Police say he deals drugs and preys on underage teen girls plus he has gang ties. The arrest was not due to a WMW viewer tip. Yakima officers saw him driving a vehicle and attempted to pull it over and the chase was on. The pursuit through Yakima ended up with Abbott exiting the vehicle and running on foot. Abbott ran into a stranger's home. Cops arrived and then Abbott wanted to fight them. They say he lost and had to receive medical attention prior to being booked into jail. Abbott is going to be charged with Assault 3, Eluding, breaking and entering, purse snatching, multiple counts of Burglary, failing to register as a sex offender and possibly more. Abbott had been on law enforcement's radar in addition to his DOC warrant because he had been identified as the suspect, who had been burglarizing churches in the area. He was featured on Washington's Most Wanted on FOX 41 at 10pm on Saturday, April 21st on KCYU-TV.

Aaron Abbott: Missing sex offender likes preying on teen girls

Aaron Abbott is a Level 3 sex offender —the worst of the worst — and he's on the run right now in Yakima County.

Q13FOX.COM

Aaron Ames Abbott was arrested on 12/18/2015 by Yakima Sheriff's Deputies. Upon receiving his name after an arrest was made, it was found that he is a Level III Sex offender as well as well as past burglaries and thefts. He also has gang ties.
