

Residency Planning for OMS1s and OMS2s!

What can I do now that will help my application and MATCH success?

How do I start planning for Residency? Where should I look? How do I begin?

How do I find residency programs that fit my career goals? What specialty should I choose?

Residency Talk Tuesdays returns Sept. 13 at Noon

Meet with GME every Tuesday 12-1pm
Butler Haney Hall Foyer

The last Tuesday of each month is specifically dedicated to CV's, personal statement development and scholarly activity.

Let's talk about your future career path.

If a different time works better for you, email gme@pnwu.edu to schedule an in-person or virtual meeting.

“Michelle is easy to contact, responds promptly, and offers honest feedback about residency questions whether they are broad or specific. I felt that she listened to me as both a person and a student, and tailored knowledgeable advice to my stage of training and ultimate goals.”

-Cora Lubchenko, OMS III
