#Will be added to the budget of students with dependent children and Graduate PLUS loan offer for dependent care assistance.

^Students who are age 26 or older as of June 1, 2024 will automatically have the new PNWU health insurance cost added to their budget and their federal student loan offer ($3218 annually).

Some clinics may have additional requirements such as criminal background checks, drug screening, fingerprinting, etc. These costs are estimated between $50-$200 and are at the student’s expense.

Additional expenses during the second year will include travel and living arrangements for the full-time clinic experiences during spring and summer semesters of the second year. This may include living expenses for out-of-the-area or out-of-state clinical experiences. If you need a budget increase for these expenses, please contact our office, finaid@pnwu.edu.
